

Congressman Blumenauer on an amendment he co-sponsored to to create a waste water and storm water reuse and recycling technology demonstration program within the environmental protection agency. The amendment passed on April 23, 2009.